Treasury of David Vol 1

Charles H. Spurgeon (1834–1892) was one of the most renowned preachers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, as well as a prolific writer of evangelical works that have impacted the Christian Church over the past two centuries. His Treasury of David is his classic work on the book of Psalms, which was originally published within the pages of his The Sword and The Trowel magazine over a 20-year period from 1865–1885, and then published in its entirety in a classic seven-volume set in 1885.

The Treasury of David is quite unique in its composition as Spurgeon spent countless hours in libraries searching through the annals of eminent Christian authors throughout Church history for the choice comments he included with each verse of every Psalm—such as, Jonathan Edwards, Augustine, Thomas Brooks, Martin Luther, John Bunyan, Athanasius, Josephus, John Calvin, Thomas Goodwin, Richard Baxter, William Jay, John Trapp, Richard Hooker, William Gurnall, and many more.

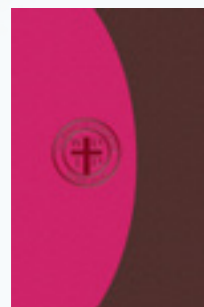

Preachers" and includes precious biblical insights and applications on the Scripture texts hundreds of eminent Christians throughout history—such as Martin Luther, Thomas Brooks, Josephus, Richard Hooker, Athanasius, Thomas Adams, Augustine, John Calvin, Bernard [of Clairvaux], Thomas Goodwin, Chrysostom, William Jay, John Trapp, and many more.

As Spurgeon reflects, "Blessed have been the days spent in meditating, mourning, hoping, believing, and exulting with David! Can I hope to spend hours more joyous on this side of the golden gate?"

This classic set remains a priceless "Treasure" of divine spiritual nourishment for every child of God.

Upon completion of this work, Spurgeon comments, "The Book of Psalms instructs us in the use of wings as well as words. It sets us both mounting and singing. If I may only hope that these volumes will be as useful to other hearts in the reading as to mine in the writing, I shall be well rewarded by the prospect." One of Spurgeon's pastoral successors at the Metropolitan Tabernacle, Eric Hayden, once called this "Spurgeon's Magnus Opus," and his wife, Suzannah, remarked that if her husband had never written any other work, this would have been "a permanent literary memorial."

The publishers at Bridge Logos have republished this superb set from the original 1885 first edition in an easy-to-read 10-volume set which is conveniently divided into volumes that reflect the biblical delineation of the Five Books of the Psalms—and includes a biography of C. H. Spurgeon, by Pure Gold Classics editor, Gene Fedele. "This extraordinary set of commentaries on the Psalms, from one of the Church's last eminent 'Puritans,' has educated and inspired generations of Christians since its first release, nearly 150 years ago, and it is our hope and prayer that through this "Treasure" many more will be richly blessed and encouraged in their faith, now and for generations to come," comments Fedele.

Knowing El Kanna

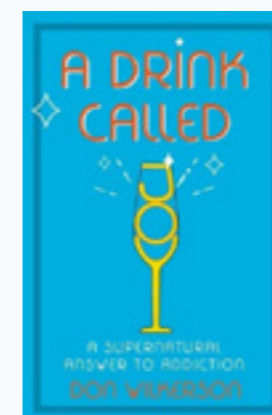

The Way to Victory Over Idolatry

In Knowing El Kanna: Our Jealous God, renowned author Charles Simpson explores the lesser-known name of God, El Kanna, translated as The Jealous God. While the notion of jealousy is often associated with sin, Simpson reveals how God's jealousy over His people can be a righteous and transformative force.

Drawing from biblical teachings, Simpson unravels the connection between idol worship and the jealousy of God. He highlights how idolatry, which extends beyond physical objects to encompass desires that supersede our devotion to God, grieves His heart. As the New Testament expands the definition of idolatry to include covetousness, Simpson empowers readers to identify and overcome the idols that hinder their relationship with the Almighty.

Author Bio:

A Drink Called Joy

The Supernatural Answer to Addiction

Using the language and stories of former drug addicts and alcoholics transformed by Jesus Christ, Don Wilkerson makes a contrast between the drinking "high" of drugs and the experience with the Most High God.

Don Writes, "Using Apostle Paul's admonition to not be drunk with wine wherein is "excess" but be "filled with the Spirit" (Ephesians 5:18) I make a similar contrast between joy in the Lord and the false euphoria of the life of the addict on drugs. There is also possible scientific evidence that if the brain waves of someone on cocaine were compared with someone joyful in the Lord the latter would show a "peace that passes all understanding."

Author Bio:

Don Wilkerson, co-founder of Teen Challenge and founder of Global Teen Challenge, returned in June 2008 as Executive Director to the original center in Brooklyn, New York, where the Teen Challenge ministry began over sixty years ago. The center became the inspiration and model for similar programs across the United States and around the world.

Now serving as President Emeritus of Brooklyn Teen Challenge, Don Wilkerson continues to serve the ministry through authoring numerous books.

Christ or Muhammad: Muslims Must Wrestle with the Claims and Promises of Christ Jesus

The promise and importance of God's Messiah is undisputedly acknowledged by the Jews, the Christians and the Muslims. Who is this Messiah?

The Bible and the Quran both recognizes Christ Jesus as the promised Messiah and directs their followers to accept the Gospel brought to mankind through Him. However, while the Quran commands to recognize the teachings of Jesus, an average Muslim remains unknowledgeable to Christ's proclamation and promises.
